AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Alex McKay, Master of R.M.S. QUEENSTOWN do solemnly swear that I have caused a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named in the List to which this is attached, of Aliens, before the departure of the said vessel from the last port at which she touched in the United Kingdom, and that I have caused the surgeon of the said vessel to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that I have personally inspected said list and surgeon's certificate. I believe that no person is a prostitute or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a polygamist, or an owner of or interested in any contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States except such as are expressly excepted by law, and that according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information contained in said List or Manifest concerning each of said passengers is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this 25th day of April 1894 at the Port of Queenstown, and I hereby certify that I have delivered a true copy of the said List or Manifest to the Collector of the Port of the United States at CORK.

Alex McKay
Commanding Officer.

AFFIDAVIT OF SURGEON.

I, R.P. Johnson, Surgeon of the R.M.S. QUEENSTOWN do solemnly swear that I have had the experience of a Physician and Surgeon and that I am duly qualified according to law to act as Surgeon of the said vessel; that I have carefully examined the Alien Passengers mentioned in the List to which this is attached, before their departure from the last port at which the said vessel touched in the United Kingdom; that I have caused the said List to be prepared under my direction; that I have personally inspected said Passengers

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Alex McKay, Master of the R.M.S. ETRURIA, from QUEENSTOWN do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on this List or Manifest Sheet, and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot, insane person, or a person likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labour in the United States, except such as are by law excepted. And that also, relating to the head of my knowledge and belief, the information in said List or Manifest concerning each of said passengers named therein is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this twenty-eighth day of Sept. 1901

Chas. Fitzgerald Deputy of the United States at CORK.

Commanding Officer

AFFIDAVIT OF SURGEON.

I, R.P. Johnson, M.D., Surgeon of the R.M.S. ETRURIA, from Wales, England do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have had [illegible] years' experience as a physician and surgeon and that I am [illegible] examined and certificated by the authority of Royal Society of Physicians of London, and that I have carefully performed a personal examination in each of the passengers named in the List or Manifest Sheet, to which this affidavit is appended, according to the best of my knowledge and belief full, correct and true in all particulars relative to the mental and physical condition of such passengers.

Sworn to before me this twenty-eighth day of Sept. 1901

Chas. Fitzgerald Deputy of the United States at CORK.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER.

I Alex Mackay Master of the R.M.S. Etruria do solemnly swear that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named in the list to which this affidavit is annexed, and that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel to make a special examination of each of such passengers, and that I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot, or insane person, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or is a polygamist, or an anarchist, or a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property; and that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel to examine as to their mental and physical condition all such passengers, and that said surgeon has certified to me the facts set forth in the surgeon's certificate hereto annexed. And that, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the said passengers are not prohibited from entering the United States under the contract labor law or any other law in force at the time of the sailing of said vessel from the last foreign port at which she touched. And I further swear that I have not, nor has any person to my knowledge or belief, on my behalf, or with my consent or by my connivance, given or promised to give any money or other consideration for the procuring or assisting of any of said passengers to emigrate to the United States, except as follows, viz:—

Alex Mackay

Master of the R.M.S. Etruria

Sworn before me this 27th day of April 1901

James Taylor

Consul of the United States at LIVERPOOL.

AFFIDAVIT OF SURGEON.

I B P Johnson Surgeon of the R.M.S. Etruria do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have carefully examined the steerage passengers on the said vessel, and that to the best of my knowledge and belief I have not found among them any idiot, insane person, or person likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is a polygamist, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property; and that I have not found among them any person afflicted with any contagious disease, except as follows, viz:—

twelve 2nd class passengers

B P Johnson

Surgeon R.M.S. Etruria

sailing therefrom do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have complied with the duties imposed upon me by the act of Congress approved March 3, 1891, and the rules and instructions of the Treasury Department thereunder, and that I have made a personal examination of each of the passengers in number named in the list to which this affidavit is annexed, and that the statements therein contained in relation to the mental and physical condition of such passengers are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER.

I, Alex Mckay, Master of the R.M.S. ETRURIA, from LIVERPOOL, do solemnly make oath [illegible] that I have carefully inspected the passengers mentioned in the foregoing list, and that I have caused the surgeon to make the [illegible] inspection of them required by law; and that according to the best of my knowledge and belief no alien mentioned in the said list is prohibited from landing under any of the provisions of the laws of the United States, and that I am not aware of any facts by reason whereof any of the said aliens would become subject to be refused a landing in the United States. And I further depose and say that the said list contains a full and correct statement of all the money in excess of fifty dollars belonging to each of the said aliens, and the whole amount of such money.

Sworn to before me this [illegible] day of [illegible] 190[1]

Alex Mckay
Master

James Temple
Comm. of the United States at LIVERPOOL

AFFIDAVIT OF SURGEON.

I, King P. Johnson, Surgeon employed by the Cunard Line, do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear that I have carefully inspected the [illegible] passengers mentioned in the foregoing list, and that according to the best of my knowledge and belief I have caused the mental and physical condition of such passengers to be thoroughly examined, previous to the sailing thereof, by competent surgeons, and under the authority of the Royal Society of Medicine and Surgeons, and that no alien mentioned in said list is prohibited from landing under any of the provisions of the laws of the United States.

Sworn to before me this [illegible] day of [illegible] 190[1]

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I [illegible] of the [illegible] do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear, that I have made a personal examination of all of the passengers. And that I verily believe the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith or the surgeon employed by the owners to make the said examination of each of said passengers has not, from any personal consideration and the report of said surgeon, any reason to believe that any one of said passengers is an alien or contract person, or a person not likely to become a citizen of the United States or dangerous to the public charge, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a person suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, except political offenses, or an agreement to labor in the United States, except as provided for by the contract labor laws of the United States. And that I will report, and deliver to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of arrival, the names of all cabin passengers who may arrive on the vessel after the date hereof, and before the departure of the vessel from her last port, and will deliver to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of arrival a list or manifest of all such cabin passengers, and will also report the sickness and deaths of any cabin passengers occurring on board

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, Robert master* of the S. S. Majestic from NAPLES do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare, I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 46 in number. (this list containing names) and that I have caused the Surgeon of said vessel, sailing therewith, or the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot or insane person, or a pauper or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous, contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests, concerning each of said passengers named thereon is correct and true.

Sworn to before me this 16 day of April 1901 Commanding Officer.

Homer W. Byington
Vice & Deputy Consul of the United States at Naples

* State whether, First or Second Officer.

Affidavit of Surgeon.

I Otto Feinmann Surgeon of the S. S. Majestic sailing therewith do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare that I have had 23 years experience as a physician and surgeon and that I am entitled to practice as such by and under the authority of the Italian Government and that I have made a personal examination of each of the passengers named herein, and that the foregoing List or Manifest Sheets, 46 in number, the annexed containing [illegible] names are according to the best of my knowledge and belief, full, correct and true in all particulars, relative to the mental and physical condition of such passengers.

Sworn to before me this 16 day of April 1901
